

A DAY OF DEBATE.

United States Senators Still Wrangling.

LEGISLATION BLOCKED.

Continued on the Election Bill Continues to be a Great Difficulty in the House of Representatives.

Jan. 22.—In the senate, while time was given up to the cloture rule and the bill brought forth through Mr. Morgan to amend the cloture rule, it was recorded that a vote of 60 to 40 was taken on Tuesday on the amendment of the cloture rule as to limitation of the rules as to limitation of the cloture rule.

Mr. Morgan moved to strike out the cloture rule in the affirmative of its incoherence. The president said that from his position he had not formally declared the cloture rule to have been declared. He would submit the question to the senate.

The Republicans are playing a waiting game. They think that protracted sessions may tire the Democrats to such an extent that little resistance will be offered to some motion that will lead up to the approval of the journal and the consequent resumption of unfinished business—the consideration of the cloture rule. But the Democrats are determined not to be trifled with. Messrs. Morgan, Gray and Kenna have been selected as the next speakers, and as they are men of wonderful physical endurance, there is apparently but small chance for the Republicans to successfully carry out their plan.

A thorough discussion of the situation has taken place among Republican leaders, resulting in the general agreement that Mr. Morgan holds the key to the situation. But the main difficulty is for Mr. Morgan to find an opportunity to make use of the key. This he cannot do, unless without making some radical ruling, and it remains to be seen whether he will exercise his power as the presiding officer of the senate to bring about a change in the present condition of affairs.

OHIO LEGISLATURE.

The Day's Transactions of the Senate and House.

THE HOUSE BARS LOBBYISTS.

Everyone Excluded from the Floor Save Members, Ex-Members, Congressmen, Governors and Newspaper Representatives—Other Ohio News Items.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 22.—The house yesterday passed a resolution excluding everybody from the floor save ex-members, congressmen, governors and newspaper representatives. The resolution was introduced by Mr. Maken, who took the ground that this was the best method of excluding lobbyists.

A telegram was received from the Farmers' Alliance at Gallion by Speaker Hays asking for the passage of the Hays bill, which provides for the taxation of manufactured articles in the possession of the manufacturers. It came up as a special order at 3 p.m. and previous opposition had melted. Several efforts to amend failed and there was a prolonged discussion.

Mr. Hays introduced it and Mr. Taylor of Champlain criticized him. The result was a lively fight between the two. The debate, however, was cut off by calling the previous question and the bill was passed with 53 votes for it, with the following against it: Messrs. Bell, Day, Dewald, Dresbach, Green, Heffner, Hodge, Holliday, Jeffre, Lauping, Mallon, Molter, Noland, O'Dowd, Parker, Sanford, Schuler, et al.

Mr. Hays introduced a bill in the house yesterday amending the criminal code. It provides that when a person is by the jury found guilty of murder in the first degree, they may, in their discretion, further find that he may be punished by confinement in the penitentiary instead of being hanged.

Senator Adams introduced a bill which will attract considerable attention and is a blow at boodle candidates. It prohibits candidates for election from disbursing any portion of funds except for personal expenses. It limits political assessments to not exceed 5 per cent. of their official salaries to be paid to local committees, and requires the treasurer of said committee to file within ten days after the election with the county clerk the amount of the disbursements and how such funds were spent. It makes it a crime for said treasurer to disburse any funds for any unlawful purpose.

Senator Adams introduced an important bill. It provides for a state inspection of private banks to be appointed by the governor for two years at a salary of $2,000. His salary to be paid by the banks inspected, as each will be charged a certain fee. His duties are similar to National bank inspectors.

The house adopted McDemer's resolution requiring the committee on fees and salaries to investigate and prepare a bill.

Senator Adams introduced a bill creating a joint committee of four, to be appointed by the probate judge, to investigate the affairs of all city officials in February of each year.

Ball Shooting and Kills His Sister.
GALLIPOLIS, O., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Sarah Woods was accidentally shot dead by her brother, Riley Thompson, at 10 o'clock Tuesday forenoon. Thompson is about 19 years of age. He did so, and in cleaning it the gun was discharged, shooting Mrs. Woods in the neck, killing her instantly. The coroner was called, and a verdict of accidental death was rendered. ## FARMERS AND KNIGHTS.

TRANSACTIONS OF THE MEETINGS HELD AT GALLION, OHIO.

GALLION, O., Jan. 22.—Tuesday evening there was a joint meeting of the knights and farmers at the opera house, which was packed. It was addressed by National Lecturer Ashley of the Alliance, Hugh Cavanaugh and Smith, delegate from the Ohio Alliance. References to a people's party movement were widely cheered, and the old parties rebuked.

The Farmers' Alliance of Ohio, at their meeting yesterday, adopted resolutions demanding that the government loan farmers money at 2 per cent. and that postage be reduced to one cent.

Eighteen delegates were elected to the National convention with instructions to secure the next National meeting for Ohio.

The accounts of Secretary Kries, against whom there had been much charge of misappropriation of funds, were investigated and found correct.

A proposal to organize the state organization with the Knights of Labor was unfavorably received. There is a manifest feeling of opposition against forming a third party, and the prospects for the organization on a political basis are poor.

At the meeting of the knights resolutions were passed as follows, demanding: First—The substitution for house bill 265, of the pending bill, relating to stationary engines.

Second—Passing of the Nolan dock bill.

Third—Prohibition of child labor under 14.

In favor of buying of us is that we are actually closing out to quit, and the time in which to close is daily growing shorter. There are no existing prices to equal those made in a closing sacrifice.

Buyers will find some especially attractive bargains on our counters this week. The cut on heavy woolen goods surpasses anything Marion buyers have ever enjoyed before. Judicious buyers should not let the golden opportunity pass.

—A special meeting will be held at the Grand Armory, here this evening. All members are expected to be present.

—A. J. Martin, Vice Master at Harpersburg, states that he leaves for that place today and will not return until spring.

—J. S. H. returned home Wednesday morning from Rock Seneca, where he has been holding religious services the past few weeks.

—The annual meeting of the Marion County Grange will be held at the Grange hall, here, Wednesday, January 24th.

—All members are requested to be present, as business of importance is to be transacted.

—Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hand, of Warren, O., are guests of Mrs. May and wife in this city.

—Miss Emma Royce, who has been visiting in this vicinity, returned here again Wednesday and spent the day with her friend, Miss Emma Royce.

—From a railroad man it is learned that George W. Matthews, who has been commercial agent of the railroad at Kansas City, has been appointed agent of the White Line at Dayton, O.

—Miss Mary Seymour Johnson entertained about fifteen of her friends Wednesday afternoon to celebrate her birthday. A pretty feature of the occasion was the birthday cake, with eight wax candles lighted on it, in the center of the table.

—The police have been trying their hand at a little detective work, trying to find out who stole a bag of money and some meat from Fritz's saloon in West Marion, one night this week. Two suspects were locked up but there was not evidence sufficient to hold them.

—An enjoyable social gathering occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Monnett, about seven miles north of the city, Wednesday evening. About an hundred friends were present, among them a number from this city, who speak of the occasion as one of unusual enjoyment socially.

—Several Marionites gave more than a passing glance to the news dispatch published in Wednesday's Journal to the effect that there was a heavy run Tuesday on the Palmer, Neb., deposit bank. The bank paid all demands in full, however, and Cashier Shipley went to Omaha for funds to tide over the crisis.

—Upper Sandusky Union. To a Union reporter who was in Bucyrus a few days ago one of the esteemed pioneer residents of that burg was particularly gratified to tell the young man that there were thirty-eight manufacturing concerns there which used steam. When asked to itemize the kind of goods made in that number all the sausage grinders that ever had been run there, and we are not certain but that the nigger's waterwheel can was also included in the thirty-eight. Of course Bucyrus is improving, but she has not got nature's fuel like the Indian village.

—The project of running a parlor cars between Columbus and Toledo has not been dropped by the C. H. V. and T., though it is several months since the matter was first talked of. President Waite and General Passenger Agent Fisher are again considering the question, with the probability that an order will be placed in a day or so. The intention is to start a car out of Toledo and Columbus and each double the road in a day by returning in the evening. Three cars will likely be ordered, two for service and one for emergencies. It is the belief that a parlor car service between the two most important cities on the line will be appreciated by the traveling public sufficiently to justify the expenditure.

The Yankee Comedy

Reuben Glue, which is to be presented at Music Hall on Saturday evening, is one of the best Yankee comedy dramas now before the public. Unlike most comedies this one has a strong plot and abounds with startling situations, is replete with ludicrous complications and altogether especially adapted to please all classes. It has been presented in every principal city in the United States, and received the highest encomiums of praise from both press and public. Willis E. Akers, in the title role, is a clever comedian, and he has surrounded himself with a company of artists. Pleasing specialties are introduced during the action of the play and altogether the performance is an excellent one. Do not miss it.

Dan Richards in a neat little speech presented the Judge with an elegant clock and Mrs. Matthews with a fine Bible.
